Preporuke

- Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, Faculty of Economics and Management nalazi se na zaista impresivnom kampusu u okolini Praga
- S obzirom na popularnost Praga kao turističke destinacije, cijene smještaja su dosta visoke. Preporučam četvrt Anděl koji je izvrsno povezan sa samim centrom i sa zračnom lukom.
- U Pragu je lako naći odlična mjesta za uživanje u hrani, piću i glazbi ☺
