I confirm that I have been previously informed about the following:

- applications for additional assessment of applicants who did not apply for Psychology through the website www.postani-student.hr will not be considered.
- applications for additional assessment of those applicants who did not attach the mandatory attachments listed in this application form to the application will not be considered
- the application for additional assessment of knowledge, skills and abilities for admission to Psychology (further: additional assessment) refers to an online interview and testing of abilities, motivation and skills necessary for the study (whereby a negative assessment is an exclusionary criterion) and is the basis for ranking. As an applicant for admission to Psychology, I am obliged to attend all parts of the additional examination (testing and interview), and absence from any part is considered a withdrawal from the study.
- if I do not access the additional assessment at the previously specified time, it will be considered that I have given up the additional assessment and the amount of the fee paid will not be returned to me

MANDATORY ATTACHMENTS:

- 1) English language certificate at the B2 level (the following certificates are accepted: a copy of the diploma for candidates who have completed high school or (under)graduate studies in English in the Republic of Croatia or abroad; foreign language school certificate issued on the school's letterhead with signature and seal; verified international certificates Cambridge, TOEFL, IELTS, PTE Academic)
- 2) payment slip/proof of payment of the fee for the costs of the additional assessment in the amount of EUR 150.00, which is filled in as follows:
